DRESS YOU UP

According to Karen Ng, director of the newly-launched "power styling" consultancy Glitz, your image is five times more important than the way you communicate (goodbye conversation, hello shoes). If, however, you know more about nuclear physics than you do about putting an outfit together, you may want to consider paying Karen to shop for you. The London-trained style meister has worked the Hongkong celebrity scene and recently saved Fiona Xie from the Worst Dressed List at the Star Awards, so she should be qualified to dress you for the office party. Prices for personal styling range from a cool $300 per hour, but consultancy packages can be tailor-made to suit your budget.

Glitz by Karen Ng is at #13-05B Ngee Ann City Tower A. Tel: 6732-1141. Visit www.glitzbykaren.com for more info.
