THE LUST LIST

THERE'S NOTHING
LIKE THE JOY OF
RECEIVING GIFTS.
HERE'S THE ULTIMATE
LIST THAT EVEN THE RICH
AND SUCCESSFUL COVET

“A family holiday in Bhutan where we’ll stay at Uma Paro (a five-star hotel nestled in the Himalayan Kingdom) and the Aman Kora (situated within the pine forest). We’ll spend our time meditating, walking, eating, and visiting sacred sites.” Nadya Hutagalung, model, jewellery maker and celebrity

“I would like to own a Cruiser bicycle from Electra, it’s so beautiful it’s almost like owning a fashion accessory. And it will help to keep me fit too.”

Cindy Goh, makeup artist

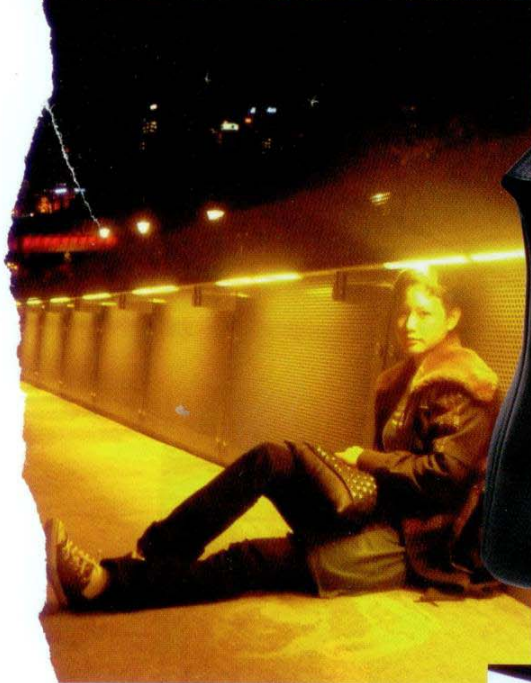

“An Hermes Birkin bag in the simplest black calf leather — it personifies everlasting elegance.”

Johnny Khoo, celebrity fashion stylist

“A Chanel Fil De Diamant watch! The moment I saw it at the Paris Biennale in September this year, I fell in love with it. It’s so exclusive that there are only a handful of pieces in the world. I’d also love a double digit, pear-shaped, D colour, IF, diamond ring preferably from Graff or Harry Winston.”

Karen Ng, fashion stylist

“I would love a trip to the UK, especially London, as I’ve always wanted to check out the music scene there and soak in the vibe. And also to check out the Liverpool Institute of Performing Arts, where I really want to take some courses.”

Amanda Ling, keyboardist of Electrico

“A two-bedroom apartment in East Coast. That area is one of the loveliest in Singapore, no? I am currently paying rent for a flat, and I keep feeling that I am investing in someone else’s property.”

Dexter Ng, hairstylist
