

Best Tiaras

Positively lighting up the ballroom were gleaming tiaras in all fashions and forms which ladies wore with delightful aplomb. Family heirlooms abounded – Liz Quek’s Kah Lee gown was given a glamorous leg-up with a tiara passed down within her family, while Celeste Basapa’s wedding tiara matched her elegant O by Odile gown perfectly. Looking absolutely princess-like were Margie Kusuma in a periwinkle blue Kah Lee gown and tiara from Hong Kong, and Diana Widjaja in Francis Cheong with a Joon Jewelry tiara. Also topping their looks with a regal touch were Venus Teo in Hervé Léger and a tiara from Japan, and Linda Soo-Tan in a bright blue Francis Cheong gown and tiara from Paris.

FROM LEFT
Dana Cheong in Marchesa and an heirloom tiara;
Karen Ng in Ashley Isham Couture and custom-made crown from London;
Jessica Lim-Charungchareonvej in Irene’s Creation and the tiara she won in the Mrs World Pageant;
Monica Marthen in Alberta Ferretti and a crown from Christian Lacroix