

HOW TO...

These experts share with us their tips for looking good at all times.

HOW TO... wear pearls without looking 65

Opt for simple designs like a single, long strand or multiple strands with no additional "embellishments". Pair with classic and simple outfits, nothing too avant-garde. And never wear fake pearls!
—Celina Lin, jewellery designer

Sarah Jessica Parker wears her trademark pearls in the movie Sex and the City

Paris Hilton makes a fashion faux pas with her visible underwear

HOW TO... fight VPL "A seamless thong or butt-lifting Brazilian-cut brief does the trick — subtle, invisible and effective! And definitely no coloured undies under white pants!"
— Vicki Yeo, assistant marketing manager

Ralph Lauren Fall/Winter '08

HOW TO... wear headgear without looking silly

"Wear them with attitude — if you're unsure, don't! But never go overboard, always pair with something simple and basic, and get proportions right. Women with long necks in particular, look better with hats. And the smaller the hat, the slicker the hair." — Frederick Lee, bridal gown designer

Jennifer Hudson opts for classic, rather than, trendy cuts. Left: Marion Cotillard dazzles at the 2008 Academy Awards

HOW TO... not regret your season's buys

"Take each and every one of your seasonal buys like you're playing shares — research on the Internet and magazines on what's 'in' and what's 'out' before going out to shop! Also, know yourself and your body well, know what cuts, colours, shapes and designs suit and do not suit you."
— Karen Ng, stylist