Q How can I rework my gladiator sandals so that they don't scream "so-last-season"?

— Salinda Binte Selamat

Breathe new life into your gladiator sandals by experimenting with different looks. They may have been last year's runaway hit, but the comfy footwear is still very relevant this season. For instance, a frilly blouse worn with a flared mini-skirt (as seen at Givenchy) or culottes evokes a romantic-edgy look when matched with these strappy sandals. Pairing the shoes with a white cotton summer dress exudes a Bohemian-babe-meets-Greek-goddess vibe. You could also be a little adventurous and go tribal! Adorn your outfit with tassels, fringes and feathers. Or try on a resort look with all-denim ensembles as seen at Chanel and Lanvin. Playsuits are also trusty accompaniments to these Grecian sandals. Finally, pedicured feet are a must! :
