VISIONS IN VINTAGE

Revvng up for the Formula 1 season in Singapore, GH Mumm, the official champagne of the Singapore Grand Prix hosted a 1950s-themed party at the National Museum of Singapore. The party inspired by the beginnings of F1 in 1950, also showcased highlights of the race in its early years. The event saw over 200 guests dressed in a sea of tweed, Audrey Hepburn-inspired outfits and vintage gowns. Karen Ng, the newly-appointed style ambassador for GH Mumm, donned a Marilyn Monroe-inspired gown by Dolce & Gabbana and a Philip Treacy headpiece specially brought in from London. She even performed the sabrage — the tradition of opening a bottle of champagne with a saber.
