Wish List

What do you desire most this Christmas? These fashionistas share with us their wish list

KAREN

Chanel Volute bracelet. This gorgeous piece combines a timepiece with an accessory. It's in my wish list because the cuff is too huge and doesn't fit me, so Chanel will have to go to their workshop and find out whether they can downsize it. I am wishing they can!

Franck Muller Infinity Watch with black diamonds. I saw the men's size version and love how gorgeous it is. I saw in Monte-Carlo how they have the latest collections ahead of everyone else.

Harry Winston

Diamonds, diamonds, diamonds. You never get enough of it. I collect them and would love to have more baubles in my wardrobe. I am waiting for a prince to grant me these wishes!

Bvlgari serpent bracelet. It slithers luxuriously across your wrist and clings onto it. Absolutely exquisite.

Hermes crocodile Birkin. It's a unique white and black croc skin. I fell in love with it the moment I laid eyes on it. It's the most beautiful Birkin I've ever seen and would go with everything in my wardrobe. I hope to get it this Christmas.
