

At the recent Audi Fashion Festival, the who's who of fashion turned up to see and be seen. ROHAIZATUL AZHAR pits himself against three fashionistas and finds out their style strategies

ASIA FASHION EXCHANGE

STYLE STRATEGY: ROCK STAR

Karen Ng, 37,
celebrity stylist

Day 1: DSquared show

This top is from DSquared, my feathered skirt is from British label Haute Hippie from Harrod's and my heels are from Nicholas Kirkwood. The first thing I thought was to wear DSquared to this show. I needed to glam the look up and so I went for the feathered skirt – it's a bit more theatrical.

Day 2: Raoul show

I'm wearing a Givenchy dress (left) and sequinned peep-toe booties from Louis Vuitton. I'm not a girly girl, I prefer a more rock-inspired look.

Day 3: Marchesa show

I'm wearing a jacket (right) and a pair of jeans from Balmain. My tube top is from Jasmine di Milo. I'm wearing Brian Atwood shoes.

The dresses from Marchesa are too feminine for my style, so I decided to be a bit more edgy.

Day 4: Alldressedup show

I'm wearing Alldressedup this evening (left). My cuffs are from Hermes and Alexander McQueen and I'm wearing fringe shoes from Louis Vuitton. My accessories and shoes were picked to complement the print on the Alldressedup dress.

Day 5: Roberto Cavalli show

I'm wearing a Roberto Cavalli dress (right). My shoes are from Gucci and the clutch is from Jill Sander.

This dress is a bit too feminine so I added a little bit of warrior chic with the rock-inspired shoes and make-up.
